

5 Steps to a Successful College Scholarship Search

Conduct a Free Scholarship Search at Scholarships.com

This personalized process only takes a couple of minutes and will tailor your scholarship matches to your qualifications. Your profile will determine which scholarships you qualify for and have the potential of winning. Best of all, it's totally free!

Organize your Favorite Scholarships

Use Scholarships.com to organize all the scholarships you're matched with. Select your favorites, sort by deadline dates, amounts and more. Review and post comments on specific scholarships and share them with friends. Let Scholarships.com help you check off your application to-do list!

Choose a Method and Order

Decide which scholarships appeal and fit you most. Some could be really easy or fun projects that you can use for school as well. We recommend taking notes on your progress to help keep you organized and inspired.

Apply to Scholarships

You can't win scholarships if you don't apply. Be proactive and try not to let any of the deadlines pass you by. Most scholarship providers do not accept late scholarship applications. Scholarships.com provides you obtainable scholarship matches based on your profile, so apply to them!

Rinse and Repeat

Applying for scholarships isn't a one-time thing. In addition to high school students, there are millions of scholarships available for currently enrolled undergraduate and graduate students as well. Scholarships are added to our database daily. Continue to update your profile, find new scholarship matches, favorite and apply!
